

MEDAL OF HONOR FOUNDATION

CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

GEORGIA TEACHER TRAINING

TRAINING SESSION

Date: February 23, 2017

Location:

Jimmy Carter Library
441 Freedom Parkway
Atlanta, GA 30307

Time: 8:30am -3:00pm

This full day training will provide educators with all the tools they need to bring the Medal of Honor Character Development Program into their classrooms. This extensive curriculum, which uses the Oral Histories of Medal of Honor Recipients, focuses on values and how students can use these examples of courage, commitment, sacrifice, integrity, citizenship and patriotism to influence change in their own communities. Teachers and administrators from middle and high schools and across all disciplines are invited to attend, and substitute teacher costs can be reimbursed to the district or school.

Attendees will:

- Receive the full curriculum kit at no cost
- Participate in model lessons
- Learn best practices for their classrooms
- Enjoy a complimentary breakfast and lunch

What teachers have said about the training and materials:

"This is one of the best workshops I've ever been to."

"I have finally been provided with the best character education curriculum."

"The material engages students and extends discussions beyond the classroom."

Funding for this training provided by:

THE ARTHUR M. BLANK
FAMILY FOUNDATION
